Dr Swarn Lata opens Sitar Darpan School

Wednesday May 11 2011

Ontario's first female-led sitar school is now open in the heart of Toronto.

Celebrated sitarist Dr Swarn Lata, who holds a doctorate in sitar instrumental music and has performed professionally for 30 years, has opened the Sitar Darpan School of Music at 61 Heintzman Street, Unit 1113 near the intersection of Keele Street and Dundas West.

"Sitar Darpan offers classes in the 'khula gayan' style, which provides room for flexibility and improvisation within the structure of compositions," says Dr Lata. "I'm the only female teacher in Ontario. Parents of young girls (may) prefer to send their daughters to a female teacher and I am proud to be able to offer that option."

The school is open to students of age 10 and above from all cultures, religions and nationalities. Registration is free and can be done online at www.sitardarpan.com; or call 647-342-4041 or 416-857-4061.
